1833

§ 1893. This provision speaks for itself. Its plain object is to secure the perfect enjoyment of that great right of the common law, *that a man's house shall be his own castle, privileged against all civil and military intrusion. The billeting of soldiers in time of peace upon the people has been a common resort of arbitrary princes, and is full of inconvenience and peril. In the petition of right (3 Charles I.), it was declared by parliament to be a great grievance. Emphasis added
