

An IRS' Symbol of a "Bird" of THEIRS

The New World Order's Bird of Prey

<http://libertyunyielding.com/2013/12/17/irs-mulls-restricting-speech-by-non-profit-groups-in-general-in-proposed-restrictions-on-501c4s/>

The IRS' symbol and logo is of a vulture... not of an eagle. The wings of a vulture are extended above its head when perched, whereas an eagle's wings are not extended.

The two pictures of America eagles with its head and wings... when perched.

obby, hold, hole, holiday, home, hope, horse, hospital, hot, hotel, house, how, hundred, a, if, important, increase, inside, into, introduce, invent, iron, invite, island, it, its, l, king, kneel, knife, know, leader, last, large, last, late, laugh, lay, lead, less, less, t, lead, length, less, less, less, less, less, less, less, less, less, less, less, less, less, less, lower, luck, machine, main, make, male, man, many, map, mark, market, marry, matt, e, me, mention, method, middle, milk, million, minute, miss, mistake, y, moon, more, more, more, more, more, more, more, more, more, more, more, more, rly, reach, need, need, need, need, need, need, need, need, need, need, need, need, nose, not, nothing, notice, now, number, obey, object, ocean, of, off, offer, office, often,

A Picture Is Worth A Thousand Words

“The IRS Symbol is also known as ‘The IRS Eagle’, the IRS symbol is made up of the IRS Eagle alone, not accompanied by the acronym “IRS” in its approved logo fixed positions.”

*A picture of a vulture