

Internal Revenue Service

The
Church
Without
Walls
Ministries

Plaintiff [believes] Defendants' Internal Revenue Service is operating as The Church Without Walls Ministries. Plaintiff [believes] this entity is the religious establishment for an organized religion forming non-denominational churches & ministries. The Defendants have sanctioned a legal system of religious beliefs, practices and convictions manifesting a new age religion. This deified system of laws and institutions has created a deity or an image of its deific. It is the paradox of the divine in the modern age that this embodiment for individual's taxpayer is discovering our religious sensibility... which penetrates modern or past experience. Defendants have fused religion, revenue and returns into an Orthodoxy of THEIRS. Plaintiff [believes] the Internal Revenue Service is The Church of Taxology for a religion of reality known as Taxology.

The Authority of the Internal Revenue Service to operate within the fifty (50) States

The Bureau of Internal Revenue and the alleged Internal Revenue Service were not created by any Act of Congress. These are not organizations or agencies of the Department of the Treasury, or of the federal government. They appear to be operated through pure trusts administered by the Secretary of the Treasury (the Trustee). The Settlor of the trusts and the Beneficiary or Beneficiaries are unknown. According to the law governing trusts; that information does not have to be revealed. You will not find the Bureau of Internal Revenue, or the Internal Revenue Service, or the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms listed in 31 USC, Chapter 3, as an authorized agency of the Department of the Treasury. Under U.S. Code Title 5 - GOVERNMENT ORGANIZATION AND EMPLOYEES, makes no recognition or approval to Internal Revenue Service or its name created by statute, however has been adopted by usage.
