THE POWER OF LAW vs. SYMBOLS of [THE CODE]

Why Three ASTERISKS? And then a period

The period also known as a full stop, especially in the English language

In effect, what does this mean?

(d) Enactment of Internal Revenue Title into law

The Internal Revenue Title referred to in subsection (a)(1) is as follows: *****.

(Aug. 16, 1954, ch. 736, 68A Stat. 3 ; Pub. L. 99-514, §2, Oct. 22, 1986, 100 Stat. 2095.)

What is ASTERISK? () A star-shaped figure () used chiefly to indicate an omission, a reference to a footnote, or an unattested word, sound, or affix.

Period at the end of the sentence means, the things said in the sentence are definite and no change is allowed.

This is legalism at its very best existing as an unconstitutional end ... at the very least
